

Marco Hanlon

Board Member

Marco Hanlon graduated from California State University Fullerton (BS Business Accounting, Finance) in 1999 and began his career in logistics. In 2001 Marco, along with his partners, began TrumpCard's expansion program. Marco later became President and CEO of TrumpCard. Under Marco's leadership, TrumpCard has built a dynamic brand and culture that showcases many of the brightest people in logistics along with a robust, best-in-class logistics software and IT platform.

TrumpCard has expanded into several geographic markets while currently recording 12 consecutive years of company growth and was named on Inc. Magazine's list of fastest growing companies in 2015.